Privacy Policy:

DanceStruck collects specific personal information, which is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to, one or more its functions or activities. We Collect your Personal Information in several ways, including but not limited to:

The enrolment process on our Website or via our Member Portal

Other instances in which you provide Personal Information via email or written correspondence.

Over the phone or in person at the studio.

The type of personal information we collect is the information that is needed to facilitate your child's dance lessons, services and products. The information we may collect may include but is not limited to details such as your: name, residential and/or mailing address, contact numbers, email address, credit/debit card details (including card type, card number and expiry date), and any medical conditions applicable to the care of your child.

We will only use and disclose this sensitive information in accordance with the purpose for which the information is required and will never provide this information to third party providers without your consent.

Media Release:

DanceStruck reserves the right to photograph and record video of students on the DanceStruck premises and performance venues for use in promotion of the studio and its students.

Parents or guardians who do not wish images of their child (17yrs or under) published should advise the office in writing.

Disruptions to Class/Attendance:

If your child is unwell, please do not attend classes.

Should you miss your allotted session due to illness/holiday or other personal reason. Members can log into the Member portal any time of day to and arrange a make-up class. The make-up session must be used within twenty-eight (28) days of the missed session. If you are unable to attend a make-up session within the twenty-eight (28) days, the class will be forfeit entirely.

Classes are delivered at the same time each week unless the timetable is updated by DanceStruck. DanceStruck agrees to provide reasonable alternatives to missed or moved classes including online delivery or make-up sessions in a comparable class. In accordance with ACCC legislation no refunds will be available for missed attendance or disruptions to the class timetable outside of the dance school's control.

In the event classes cannot be delivered in person, the curriculum will be delivered live and online with resources and music to ensure your child's dance education stays on track.

Late Payments:

Payment for classes is due on the 25th of each calendar month.

All bills will be made available for payment via the portal by the 11th of each calendar month for the next calendar month (i.e., All bills for November will be available for payment by the 11th of October)
