CHILD ABUSE REPORTING

Under the Child Protection Act of 1987 (C.R.S. 19-3-301) in the Colorado's Children's Code, childcare center workers are required to report suspected child abuse or neglect. The law states that if a child care worker has "reasonable cause to know or suspect that a child has been subjected to abuse or neglect or who has observed the child being subjected to circumstances or conditions which would reasonably result in abuse or neglect shall immediately report or cause a report to be made of such fact to the county department or local law enforcement agency."

As a parent you will be notified of a report has been made.

I have read and understand the above requirements concerning child abuse reporting. I understand that I will be notified after the report has been made.
